Dear Harold,

Enclosed are the clippings on the Block tax suit you requested. Also enclosed is a copy of an old article on the litigation arising out of Josiah Thompson's use of the Zapruder film. I ran a couple of extra copies, as Bob wanted one. What brought it to mind was a screening of the copy of the Zap film which was advertised in the Wall Street Journal. That copy of the film is at best only a trifle better than the Cutler version; both are greatly inferior to the Archives copy. I'm sure it will come as no surprise to you to learn that the person who pays more than $35 for it has been taken.

Best regards,

Jim
